A thought on the Gospel

- ♦ At funerals, we often discuss the encounters we have had with the deceased in order to capture something of their personality. On the grave-stone, too, we often try to express some great value that they cherished.
- ♦ What really counts in God's sight is, How much did they love?
- ♦ Wouldn't it be great if, when all the speeches are over, the final verdict on our life was, "Kind, thoughtful, devoted to others, committed to love."
