Blessings to all Parishioners this Bank Holiday Weekend

As we commence a new level of reduced restrictions in our lives this Bank Holiday Monday the 7th June 2021, we wish everyone blessings of happiness and health as they get to meet up with family and friends. We hope it is a start for people, returning to some form of normality in their lives. However we cannot throw caution to the wind as Covid 19 is still very much in the community. Please continue to exercise personal responsibility and adhere to the restrictions in place.

First Holy Communion Candidates receiving Baptism & First Confession

We would like to welcome to our parish all those who have received their baptism as part of their First Holy Communion preparation.

We would like to acknowledge and thank all national school Principals, Teachers and Secretaries for their assistance in making it possible for First Confessions to be provided in each of their schools.

Congratulations to all First Holy Communion Candidates that have received their First Confessions to date in Ardkeen and Clonown National Schools.

Corpus Christi (The Body & Blood of Jesus)

It was because of the last supper that we are here in this church today. Jesus intended his last supper to be a beginning rather than an end. It was the first Eucharist (Mass). Ever since that meal, the church has gathered regularly in his name and in his presence, to do and say what he did and said at that last supper — taking bread and wine, blessing both, breaking the bread and giving both for disciples to eat and drink.
