The CUE Choral Ambassadors (CCA) are a chamber choir (16 singers) comprised of university music majors from across the USA.

The CCA's Irish Cathedral Tour spans from July 21 though August 1st.

Christ Church (Dublin), St. Columb's Cathedral (Derry), St.

Mary's Cathedral (Limerick), the Belfast Castle, the Church of Ss. Peter and Paul in Athlone are among our scheduled concerts.

Randolph Edwards, CCA Conductor, is the founder of YouthCUE. Mr. Edwards has conducted mass choirs and full professional orchestras in over 150 YouthCUE events since 1995. A native of Texas, Randolph began conducting choirs at age 15 and has been a vocational church musician for the past 52 years. He has three adult children, Preston, Ashley and Kathryn, and two grandchildren, Faye and William.

Dr. Daniel Zamora is Artist in Residence at YouthCUE.

He is a native of Mexico City, Mexico, where he began very early as a church accompanist. Daniel enjoys a distinguished career as a church musician and is equally at home on organ or piano. His colleagues know him as an accompanist extraordinaire on either instrument and always a pure joy to include in musical ventures. Daniel is father of two adult children, Dan and Michael.
