

This is the lesson of Christmas:
humility is the great condition for faith, for the spiritual life and for holiness.
May the Lord grant it to us as a gift.

Pope Francis

A Message of Gratitude and Peace from the Parish of Ss. Peter and Paul Athlone, including Drum and Clonown

As the festive season of Christmas envelops us, filling our lives with joy, love, and the warmth of community, the Parish of Ss. Peter and Paul Athlone, including Clonown and Drum, extends its heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you who has contributed to the vibrant life of our parish throughout 2025. Your tireless efforts, unwavering support, and unrelenting spirit of volunteerism have been the cornerstone upon which our parish community has grown stronger and more resilient.

At this special time of the year, our thoughts and prayers are with those who, due to the demands of work or the vastness of distance, cannot be with their loved ones. We remember, in a special way, the brave men and women of our defence forces who are serving on UN missions, dedicating their Christmas to the noble cause of peace and security for all humanity. Your sacrifice does not go unnoticed, and we pray for your safe return and the peace that your work embodies.

Our hearts also go out to the many families within our parish who are navigating their first Christmas without a loved one by their side. We understand the profound grief that can accompany the festive season, and we remember you in our prayers. May the comfort of cherished memories, the love of those around you, and the promise of eternal life through the birth of Christ be a source of solace and peace during this challenging time.

As we celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, we are reminded of the universal message of hope, love, and peace that His arrival brings. In a world that often finds itself divided and filled with turmoil, the Holy Season stands as a beacon of light, guiding us toward the harmony and understanding we all so deeply long for.

May the miracle of Christmas fill our hearts with the hope that a better tomorrow is possible, inspire our spirits with the love that conquers all, and envelop our world in the peace that transcends all boundaries. May the blessings of this sacred season be upon you and your loved ones, and may the New Year, 2026, bring you joy, prosperity, and peace.

On behalf of the Parish of Ss. Peter and Paul Athlone, including Drum and Clonown, we wish you all the blessings of Christmas and every blessing in the year to come. May your hearts be light, your homes be filled with laughter, and your spirits be lifted by the love and peace of the Christmas message.

Happy Christmas and a Peaceful New Year
